SENATE.

TUESDAY, May 30, 1922.

(Legislative day of Thursday, April 20, 1922.)

The Senate met at 1.25 p. m., on the expiration of the recess.

THE TARIFF.

The Senate, as in Committee of the Whole, resumed the consideration of the bill (H. R. 7456) to provide revenue, to regulate commerce with foreign countries, to encourage the industries of the United States, and for other purposes.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The Secretary will state the pending question.

The ASSISTANT SECRETARY. The pending amendment is, on page 39, after line 18, to strike out paragraph 218 and to insert a new paragraph 218.

RECESS.

Mr. LODGE. Mr. President, in accordance with Senate Resolution 291, heretofore agreed to, I move that the Senate take a recess until to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock a. m.

The motion was agreed to; and (at 1 o'clock and 30 minutes p. m.) the Senate, under the terms of Senate Resolution 291, took a recess until to-morrow, Wednesday, May 31, 1922, at 11 o'clock a. m.

SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, May 31, 1922.

(Legislative day of Thursday, April 20, 1922.)

The Senate met at 11 o'clock a. m., on the expiration of the recess.

ADJUSTMENT OF ARMY AND NAVY PAY—CONFERENCE REPORT.

Mr. WADSWORTH. Mr. President, I present the conference report on House bill 10972, commonly known as the service pay bill, and I ask unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The Secretary will read the conference report.

The reading clerk read the report, as follows:

The committee of conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the amendments of the Senate to the bill (H. R. 10972) to readjust the pay and allowances of the commissioned and enlisted personnel of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, Coast and Geodetic Survey, and Public Health Service having met, after full and free conference, have agreed to recommend and do recommend to their respective Houses as follows:

That the House recede from its disagreement to the amendments of the Senate numbered 3, 4, 5, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, and 42, and agree to the same.

Amendment numbered 1: That the House recede from its disagreement to the amendment of the Senate numbered 1, and agree to the same with an amendment as follows: In lieu of the language inserted by the Senate insert the following: "except those whose promotion is limited by law to this grade and who are not entitled under existing law to the pay and allowances of a higher grade"; and the Senate agree to the same.

Amendment numbered 2: That the House recede from its disagreement to the amendment of the Senate numbered 2, and agree to the same with an amendment as follows: In lieu of the language stricken out by the Senate insert the following: "Nothing contained in the first sentence of section 17 or in any other section of this act shall authorize an increase in the pay of officers or warrant officers on the retired list on June 30, 1922"; and the Senate agree to the same.

Amendment numbered 6: That the House recede from its disagreement to the amendment of the Senate numbered 6, and agree to the same with an amendment, as follows: In lieu of the language inserted by the Senate, insert the following: "on June 30, 1922, there shall be included in the computation"; and the Senate agree to the same.

Amendment numbered 7: That the House recede from its disagreement to the amendment of the Senate numbered 7, and agree to the same with an amendment, as follows: In lieu of the language inserted by the Senate, insert the following: "and service as a contract surgeon serving full time; and also 75 per cent of all other periods of time during which they have held commissions as officers of the Organized Militia between January 21, 1903, and July 1, 1916, or of the National Guard, the Naval Militia, or the National Naval Volunteers since June 3, 1916"; and the Senate agree to the same.

J. W. WADSWORTH, JR.,
TRUMAN H. NEWBERRY,
DUNCAN U. FLETCHER,

Managers on the part of the Senate.

JOHN C. MCKENZIE,
JAMES F. BYRNES,

Managers on the part of the House of Representatives.

Mr. WADSWORTH. It may perhaps hasten matters if I make a brief explanation.

Mr. HARRISON. Will the Senator from New York yield, that I may suggest the absence of a quorum?

Mr. WADSWORTH. Is it necessary at this time?

Mr. HARRISON. There are no doubt some Senators on this side of the Chamber interested in this legislation and they are not now here.

Mr. WADSWORTH. Very well.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The Senator from Mississippi suggests the absence of a quorum. The Secretary will call the roll.

The reading clerk called the roll and the following Senators answered to their names:

| | | | |
|---------------|----------------|-----------|--------------|
| Ashurst | Harris | McKinley | Robinson |
| Borah | Harrison | McLean | Sheppard |
| Bursum | Hitchcock | McNary | Simmons |
| Calder | Johnson | Moses | Smoot |
| Capper | Jones, N. Mex. | Nelson | Sutherland |
| Culberson | Jones, Wash. | New | Townsend |
| Curtis | Kellogg | Newberry | Underwood |
| du Pont | Kendrick | Nicholson | Wadsworth |
| Edge | Keyes | Norbeck | Warren |
| Ernst | King | Oddie | Watson, Ga. |
| Fletcher | Ladd | Page | Watson, Ind. |
| Frelinghuysen | Lenroot | Poinexter | |
| Gooding | Lodge | Ransdell | |
| Hale | McCumber | Rawson | |

The VICE PRESIDENT. Fifty-three Senators have answered to their names. A quorum is present.

Mr. WADSWORTH. Mr. President, just a brief word of explanation. The only difference in the bill as now reported from the conference is that the conferees have agreed that those officers who are now upon the retired list in the several services shall not receive the benefit of the increased pay due to the revision of the pay of officers on the active list, but that hereafter the officers who are retired shall have the benefit of the new schedule.

Mr. ROBINSON. Mr. President, what is the subject matter the Senator is discussing?

Mr. WADSWORTH. The pay bill conference report.

Mr. ROBINSON. Has the Senator asked unanimous consent for its consideration?

Mr. WADSWORTH. I have.

Mr. ROBINSON. It has been granted?

Mr. WADSWORTH. The conference report has been read, showing the action of the House in receding.

Mr. ROBINSON. Has a full agreement been reached?

Mr. WADSWORTH. A full agreement.

Mr. ROBINSON. It was impossible to hear the Senator's first statement because of the numerous conversations in progress in the Chamber, particularly about the Senator from New York. I ask for order. On the other side of the Chamber everyone seems to be engaged in conversation.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The Senate will be in order.

Mr. ROBINSON. I ask the Senator from New York if a full agreement has been reached on the conference report?

Mr. WADSWORTH. It has.

Mr. ROBINSON. Will the Senator state the effect of the agreement?

Mr. WADSWORTH. The matter in difference between the two Houses at the time the Senate passed the House bill was as to the pay of retired officers. The House had proposed that certain grades of retired officers, the upper grades, to be exact, should not receive any increase in pay, if such were possible, due to the revision of the pay schedule of those on the active list. The Senate struck out that restriction and passed the bill in such a form as would permit retired officers to receive an increase. In conference the Senate conferees yielded on that matter with an amendment, the effect of which is that officers now upon the retired list of the six services shall receive no increase in pay, but officers hereafter retired shall, of course, be retired on the basis of 75 per cent of the pay they are receiving at the date of retirement.

Mr. ROBINSON. In other words, the provision is not made retroactive?

Mr. WADSWORTH. It is not. By that change about $500,000 additional will be saved.

Mr. SPENCER. Mr. President, will the Senator from New York tell me if this was the only point in conference?

Mr. WADSWORTH. It was the only point upon which there was disagreement. Two other matters were not in actual disagreement, but the conferees drew better language to cover the points involved. There is no essential change except in the matter of retired officers.

The VICE PRESIDENT. Is there objection to the immediate consideration of the conference report? The Chair hears none. The question is on agreeing to the conference report.

The report was agreed to.

SCHOOLS FOR AERONAUTICS.

The VICE PRESIDENT laid before the Senate a communication from the Acting Secretary of the Navy, transmitting in further response to Senate Resolution 266, agreed to April 5,
